Lithgow, William, 1582-1645?

A true and experimental discourse, upon the beginning, proceeding, and victorious event of this last siege of Breda. With the antiquity and annexing of it, to the house of Nassau, and the many alterations it hath suffered by armies, and armies, within those three-score years ... Written by him who was an eye-witness of the siege. William Lithgow. London: printed by I. Okes for E. Bohnell, and are to be sold at his shop in Pauls Church-yard at the signe of the Sunne. 1637.

Livingston, William, 1733-1790.

A review of the military operations in North-America; from the commencement of the French hostilities on the frontiers of Virginia in 1753, to the surrender of Oswego, on the 14th of August, 1756. Interpersed with various observations, characters, and anecdotes; necessary to give light into the conduct of American transactions in general; and more especially into the political management of affairs in New York. In a letter to a nobleman. London, R. and J. Dodsley, 1757.

Livingston, William, 1733-1790. A review of the military operations in North-America ... 1757. (Card 2)

A defense of General Shirley's conduct of operations during the war. "In this work Mr. Livingston is said, I know not on what authority, to have been assisted by William Smith and John Morris (i. Scott). For the facts which it contains, he was probably indebted to his brother-in-law, Mr. Alexander, afterwards Lord Stirling, who was about this time secretary to General Shirley."—Sedgwick, T. Catalogue of books relating to the flora of Europe, contained in the botanical library of C. G. Lloyd, Cincinnati ... embracing the sections K (part), L, M, N, O, P, and Q (part.) of the library. Cincinnati, 1894.

"The library is systematically arranged in sections (numbered by letters of the alphabet) ... The flora of Europe embraces five of these sections, viz. L, M, N, O, P and parts of two other sections, viz. K and Q. Many works relating to the medical flora of Europe are not placed in these sections and hence not found in this catalogue, being included in a separate section, relating to medical botany."—Pref.

Logan, Olive (Logan) 1830-1900.

Before the footlights and behind the scenes: a book about "the show business" in all its branches: from puppet shows to grand opera; from mountebanks to menageries; from learned pigs to lecturers; from burlesque blondes to actors and actresses; with some observations and reflections (original and reflected) on morality and immorality in amusements; thus exhibiting the "show world" as seen from within, through the eyes of the former actresses, as well as from without, through the eyes of the latter.
